DLC MANAGEMENT CORP. TAPS TRAVIS FARREN FOR VICE PRESIDENT OF LEASING

(Elmsford, NY) – DLC Management Corp, a national owner and operator of open-air shopping centers, is pleased to announce that Travis Farren has joined the team as Vice President of Leasing. Mr. Farren will immediately assume senior responsibility for the overall performance of leasing operations throughout the company's southern portfolio of properties.

Travis Farren comes to DLC with almost twenty years of experience in the retail real estate sector, and was most recently Director of Leasing for CBL Properties, applying creative leasing strategies for regional malls, open air centers, associated centers and anchor redevelopments. A goal oriented manager, leader and supervisor, Mr. Farren is known within the retail real estate industry as a skilled communicator, resilient deal closer and an exceptional motivator. In this player/coach role, Mr. Farren will lead a team of real estate professionals through the deal process; collaborating with other departments to establish strategic and innovative leasing plans while mentoring his team's professional development.

DLC Management Corp. continues to show its commitment to building a strong and talented team to better serve its tenants, partners and clients. The company has long believed that people are its strongest asset and the main source of its #success. DLC continues to search for passionate individuals with a take on anything attitude to join its team.
