

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

DLC MANAGEMENT CORP. TAPS CHRISTOPHER GUMBRECHT FOR SVP OF CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT

Tarrytown, N.Y., (May 8, 2017) – DLC Management Corporation (DLC), a national owner and operator of open-air shopping centers, is pleased to announce that Christopher Gumbrecht has joined the team as Senior Vice President of Construction Management. Christopher will immediately assume senior responsibility for the overall performance and development of the construction management portion of the business. Among the projects he will lead are a 37,000 SF LA Fitness at Union Consumer Square in Cheektowaga, NY and a 10,000 SF Dollar Tree at River Hills Shopping Center in Asheville, NC in addition to others.

Christopher comes to DLC with almost twenty years of experience in the construction arena, and was most recently the Vice President of Construction for The Hudson's Bay Company, overseeing all construction in the United States for Lord & Taylor, Saks Fifth Avenue, Saks Fifth Avenue OFF 5TH and GILT from 2012 through late last month. DLC is thrilled to welcome Gumbrecht's expertise to the company, which currently has over 20 million SF under management across 100 multi-tenant centers in 20 states.

DLC Management Corp. recognizes that human capital is its most important asset when it comes to #success. DLC defines #success as working together to create a personally rewarding, productive, respectful, profitable, thoroughly enjoyable place to work with a company that seeks to maximize growth and profitability.
